

MIZARELLI PRODUCTIONS

HERE IS WHAT IS NEW...

06/07/2015

Hello students! We hope you had a wonderful weekend and that you also separated some time to do your homework. Don't forget that it is very important to have contact with English outside of the class and to also dedicate time to your assignments. Have a blockbuster week!

VERB OF THE WEEK

To Bleed, Bled, Bled

[bleed]

verb (used without object), bled

1. to lose blood from the vascular system, either internally into the body or externally through a natural orifice or break in the skin: to bleed from the mouth.
2. (of injured tissue, excrescences, etc.) to exude blood: a wart that is bleeding.
3. (of a plant) to exude sap, resin, etc., from a wound.
4. (of dye or paint) to run or become diffused: All the colors bled when the dress was washed.
5. (of a liquid) to ooze or flow out.
6. to feel pity, sorrow, or anguish: My heart bleeds for you. A nation bleeds for its dead heroes.
7. to suffer wounds or death, as in battle: The soldiers bled for the cause.

verb (used with object), bled

8. to cause to lose blood, especially surgically:
Doctors no longer bleed their patients to reduce fever.
9. to lose or emit (blood or sap).
10. to drain or draw sap, water, electricity, etc., from (something):
to bleed a pipeline of excess air.
11. to remove trapped air from (as an automotive brake system) by opening a bleeder valve.

The world is changing...are you?

WWW.MIZARELLI.COM

WORD OF THE WEEK

Bleed:

[bleed]

noun

01. Medicine/Medical. an instance of bleeding; hemorrhage: an intracranial bleed.

adjective

02. Printing. characterized by bleeding: a bleed page.

PHRASAL VERB OF THE WEEK

To Put Away...

1. to store, to tidy. to put something in a box, drawer etc because you have finished using it.

- Please put your toys away now children.

- I'm going to put the car away.

2. to save money to spend later.

- He put some money away every month for his retirement.

3. to put somebody into prison. (informal)

- He was put away for 15 years for armed robbery.

EXPRESSION OF THE WEEK

To Leave Someone Out to Bleed: To leave a person without any recourse or help. To leave a person/group in a situation where failing is imminent

After Mark decided to abandon the new construction project he left his team out to bleed. There was no possible way that the project would be done in time.

The world is changing...are you?

WWW.MIZARELLI.COM

When Neymar was suspended on a technicality he left the national team out to bleed. The players also lost morale and there was no way they would win the game.

After John irresponsibly lost all of his family's life savings gambling he left his children out to bleed. There is no way the kids can attend a good college now.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

“You become the average of the six most important people in your networking group”-
Unkown

DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know that blood makes up around 7% of the weight of a human body?

The world is changing...are you?

WWW.MIZARELLI.COM