

MIZARELLI PRODUCTIONS

HERE IS WHAT IS NEW...

27/10/2015

Hello students! The end of the year is approaching and it is important to maintain your focus and keep up with your studies. Those of you participating in the resume project should be completing the first portion of the assignment before your first class next week. In observance of the holiday on Monday we will be closed. Classes will begin normally on Tuesday. Please remember that when rescheduling a class please visit our site Mizarelli.com. Have a blockbuster week!

VERB OF THE WEEK

To Scare, Scared

[skair]

verb (used with object), scared, scaring.

1.to fill, especially suddenly, with fear or terror; frighten; alarm.

verb (used without object), scared, scaring.

2.to become frightened: That horse scares easily.

WORD OF THE WEEK

Scare:

[skair]

noun

1.a sudden fright or alarm, especially with little or no reason.

2.a time or condition of alarm or worry:

The world is changing...are you?

WWW.MIZARELLI.COM

PHRASAL VERB OF THE WEEK

To Turn In...

-To go to sleep

Paul turns in early in order to have a pleasant day at work. Going out late is not something he enjoys.

Jenna is not able to turn in before midnight. She suffers from insomnia and has many sleepless hours.

EXPRESSION OF THE WEEK

To Get The Chills...

-To have a moment of intense excitement, a sudden, passing sensation of excitement; a shudder of emotion; thrill.

The scary story gave me the chills. I do not like listening to scary things at night.

Watching the lottery drawing on TV gave me the chills, unfortunately though, that was about it. I did not have any of the numbers.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

“There is nothing funny about Halloween. This sarcastic festival reflects, rather, an infernal demand for revenge by children on the adult world”- Jean Baudrillard

DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know that the owl is a popular Halloween image? In Medieval Europe, owls were thought to be witches, and to hear an owl's call meant someone was about to die.

The world is changing...are you?

WWW.MIZARELLI.COM