

MIZARELLI PRODUCTIONS

HERE IS WHAT IS NEW...

28/09/2015

Hello students! A new week is beginning and we have plenty of work to do. The Numbers assignment will be a very useful, print it and your teacher will go over it with you! Please remember to visit mizarelli.com to play games, read reviews of local establishments, reschedule your class and much more. All active students should have received their usernames and passwords by now. If you haven't please reply back to this email and we will get right back to you. Have a blockbuster week!

VERB OF THE WEEK

To Vote, Voted

[voht]

verb (used with object), presumed, presuming.

verb (used without object), voted, voting.

1. to express or signify will or choice in a matter, as by casting a ballot: to vote for president.

WORD OF THE WEEK

Vote:

[voht]

noun

1. a formal expression of opinion or choice, either positive or negative, made by an individual or body of individuals.

2. the means by which such expression is made, as a ballot, ticket, etc.

3. the right to such expression: to give women the vote.

4. the decision reached by voting, as by a majority of ballots cast:

The vote was for the resolution.

5. a collective expression of will as inferred from a number of votes: the labor vote.

6. an expression, as of some judgment: a vote of confidence.

The world is changing...are you?

WWW.MIZARELLI.COM

PHRASAL VERB OF THE WEEK

To Bend The Truth...

- To change facts or a story in small manner

Representative McCallister bent the truth just a little too much when he stated he had created 10 thousand jobs in the local area. All of his proposed bills never became laws.

Every time Monica gets a new report card she tries to bend the truth by telling her mother that her teachers are unreasonable. Monica[s mom was not born yesterday, and knows the daughter she brought up.

Many people believe the government is bending the truth by not acknowledging alien life.

EXPRESSION OF THE WEEK

To Run For Office: To be a competing participant in any sort of election. Normally for a government position, but not necessarily. It can also be for school office or groups.

Hillary Clinton is running for the presidency of the United States. Many people believe she has a good chance but there is strong competition out there.

The Brazilian Government is voting on public campaign donations and financing. This is a hot topic in the country now. Along with the budget, the political insecurity has caused the value of the US Dollar to skyrocket against the Brazilian Real.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

“Political language... is designed to make lies sound truthful and murder respectable, and to give an appearance of solidity to pure wind.” –George Orwell

DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know that every single year more Americans vote during the show American Idol than in all of the country’s previous presidential elections combined?

The world is changing...are you?

WWW.MIZARELLI.COM